

The number of random consumer calls have drastically reduced! I would receive nearly 2 or 3 unwanted calls an evening. This period of reduced has been quite pleasant and calming. Please do not consider loosening the Indiana No Caller list to allow "established business relation" exemptions.

On a second note, this no call list has been so successful...have you considered establishing one for email spam mail?

Thank you! Juan A. Jimenez